

A note from Tim Costello...

As a sector we need to invest in our future, beyond our own organisations, beyond our own area of activity. We are powerful in economic terms – employing over 1 million Australians – and we are powerful in social terms – holding our communities together in good times and bad. We need to also be powerful advocates for our sector, and that can only happen if we all commit some of our time and resources to our collective future.

CCA is a group of leading organisations who have shown a commitment to strengthen the not-for-profit (NFP) sector in Australia and influence its future. I hope that you can join us.

Tim Costello, Chair, CCA.

Become part of an organisation that...

- Promotes the value of the NFP sector
- Is working to develop a vision for a stronger and more sustainable NFP sector
- Facilitates the exchange of ideas and information between NFP organisations
- Influences and shapes the NFP policy agenda with parliamentarians, policy-makers, sector leaders and business
- Informs, educates and assists NFP organisations to deal with change and build sustainable futures
- Researches emerging sector issues including access to finance, capacity building, mapping the regulatory burden and planning for the future of the sector.

Take advantage of CCA membership benefits...

Policy development and representation

CCA's policy submissions to government on key NFP reform agenda issues; opportunity for input into CCA's submissions and use of CCA's submissions to support your own; opportunities for industry collaboration.

Board

Opportunity for NFP member CEOs to nominate for a director position on the CCA Board as vacancies arise.

Events and Networking

Events for members such as small roundtables; CEO forums with expert panellists; member networking and major events such as policy debates at the National Press Club.

Expertise and Advice

Access the CEO and Board for high level discussion and advice on the current environment; policy issues relating to the NFP reform agenda; government relations; and access to decision-makers in Canberra.

Research and Information

An e-newsletter; access to CCA internal and commissioned research; access to research undertaken by government bodies and other groups; daily updates on major political and other events – when CCA learns about it, so will you.

CCA is dedicated to building flourishing communities by enhancing the extraordinary work and effort undertaken within the NFP sector.

David and the team look forward to hearing from you:

National Peak and Federated bodies:

Peak and federated bodies joining CCA are asked to take into account the size and scope of their network when deciding their membership category. Guidelines:

- Where the national office is funded or subsidised by the federation, the Member is expected to pay a category that reflects their federation's turnover.
- Self-funded national membership based organisations may pay based on their organisational income, but are asked to consider if this adequately reflects the way in which CCA benefits will be drawn on to support their network.

Please circle the level of membership fees that applies to your organisation. You will be invoiced following approval of your application by the CCA Board.
