

Building flourishing communities by enhancing the work of Australia's charities and not-for-profit sector

A note from Tim Costello...

As a sector we need to invest in our future, beyond our own organisations, beyond our own area of activity. We are powerful in economic terms – employing 1.3 million Australians – and we are powerful in social terms – holding our communities together in good times and bad. We need to also be powerful advocates for our sector, and that can only happen if we all commit some of our time and resources to our collective future.

CCA is a group of leading organisations who have shown a commitment to strengthen the charities and not-for-profit (NFP) sector in Australia and influence its future. I hope that you can join us.

Rev Tim Costello AO, Chair CCA

Policy development and representation

Policy submissions and advocacy to government and parliamentarians on reform and issues impacting charities and NFPs. CCA members input into CCA's submissions and can use them to support their own. CCA also leads advocacy campaigns on issues affecting our sector and collaborates with sector colleagues in collective advocacy.

Leadership Networking

Born from leadership within our sector, CCA recognises our leaders are our sectors' greatest asset. We facilitate leadership support and high-level peer discussion on the issues affecting charities and NFPs through our CEO Forums; CFO Network; HR Senior Leaders' Network; Senior Policy Managers' Network and Digital Leaders' Network.

National Peak and Federated bodies

Peak and federated bodies joining CCA are asked to take into account the size and scope of their network when deciding their membership category. Guidelines:

- Where the national office is funded or subsidised by the federation, the Member is expected to pay a category that reflects their federation's turnover.
- Self-funded national membership-based organisations may pay based on their organisational income, but are asked to consider if this adequately reflects the way in which CCA benefits will be drawn on to support their network.
